

Knitters' Guild NSW Inc.

Formed in 1986, the Knitters' Guild NSW promotes and encourages hand knitting and crochet and associated crafts. The Guild encourages the achievement and maintenance of high standards in design and technique and provides opportunities for members to exhibit their work, exchange information and learn new skills.

The Guild is run by an active team of volunteers and we encourage all members to get involved.

The Guild offers members a wide range of activities and learning opportunities. The following is a list of just some of the activities members can enjoy:

- Camp every two years
- Exhibitions
- A comprehensive Library of resources
- Achievement Certificates for Knitting and Crochet
- Workshops at a Group level
- Workshops at a State level that include well-renowned and international guests
- Events such as FibreFest
- A knitting and crochet cruise
- A great social and creative environment
